

Abstract

Shape memory alloy (SMA) technology and bi-metallic sealing elements are used to provide compact, reliable super-elastic sealing mechanisms, e.g., for 5 use in the oilfield environment. Novel designs for sealing of annular areas are presented.